It's August, which means Rabbi Kane is back from vacation and in high gear planning the High Holidays and a calendar full of events for us to enjoy. The Holidays will be here soon, so be sure to keep your eyes open for emails coming from our Ritual Committee Chairs, Debra Rodensky and Larry Cooperman, as well as from the office, as they attempt to shepherd us all into another memorable Holiday season. We are EXCITED about the upcoming year.

The month of July was quiet, and we owe our thanks to all the folks who stepped in to make sure Friday and Saturday services went off without a hitch. Rabbi Lennick, Charles Moskowitz, Larry Cooperman, Ana Chuen, our beloved Cantor Rich, and especially Sam and Eli Kisseloff, all did an amazing job. Our wonderful Building and Grounds Committee (Ken Haberman and Alan Kisseloff) have been doing a splendid job sprucing things up, and boy, things are really looking good. The buildings and sidewalks have been pressure washed, and thanks to our local fire department, we were able to re-cord our flag pole and re-hang our flags. Our A/C is nice and cold, so come to services and enjoy it!

Also in July, we got to celebrate the 45th Anniversary of Dr. Richard & Lisa Rhodes with a lovely Shabbat Oneg. Our "catering director" extraordinaire, Lea Moskowitz, and our Sisterhood, keep outdoing themselves with creative recipes and beautiful presentations. Dr. Barry and Barbara Kusnick celebrated their 40th Anniversary with a beautiful and moving vow renewal ceremony followed by a lovely luncheon. If you have an occasion you'd like to celebrate at CBT, check date availability with the office.

Our Sisterhood is under the capable new leadership of Barbara Kusnick, who is bringing lots of amazing ideas and energy to the role. Thank you, Barbara, for taking on this position. Finally, let's not forget to say, "thanks" to our Administrator, Laurie, who manages (or at least attempts) to keep everything organized and under control for us every day.

A Message From Rabbi Kane

Rabbi Heschel called Shabbat, the Sabbath day, a palace in time.

He was writing in an age when observance was popularly considered a burden. From Kosher to Services to Tzedakah. The whole idea of a Chosen People not being extra special but rather being remarkable for their willingness to be more disciplined about the desire to act in a holy manner - seemed like a heaviness.

Along comes this brilliant American Rabbi to explain that the burden is the day-to-day obligation of work, but the Sabbath is like a visit to the Kings of old. Everything about our day of rest is different and more special. We gather together for food, prayer, to remember to cherish one another.

I am fond of the Rabbi's positivity, but allow me to shine his light in a different direction.

We recently marked the Anniversary of the destruction of the Holy Temple in Israel. What was lost?

For Jews, perhaps, a way to use the expertise of the Priests and Levites to relate to the Divine; giving thanks, asking forgiveness, asking for health, fertility, weather, etc

How then did the Rabbis wish us to communicate with the divine? How do we thank God and ask for anything?

We build our own palace in life. We must use the idea of being holy, of imitating as best we can, God's attributes.

When people enter our lives, shall they encounter something or someone harsh - or welcoming? Someone with no time to listen - or someone who can make the time to hear? Someone with no interest in anyone different - or someone who can treasure our differences?

Each way we construct ourselves to embrace those we cherish or are willing to cherish, we build a palace in life.

Those are the kinds of lives that blessings embrace.

Religious School Report

By Helen Farb

The summer is going by quickly, and we will be back at Religious School soon. We have been coordinating some activities with the religious school director at Temple Beth-El, Jonathan Frankel, and are looking forward to coming together with their students from time to time.

We were unable to hold July's Kid and Tot Shabbat, but our next one on August 4th will be extra special, not only because we get to see everyone again, but because it is my birthday. I will be sponsoring the Oneg Shabbat that night, so come support our kids and eat some cake.

We are going to have a busy August, and we need your help, starting with our Annual Clean Up Day. We need to organize our large classroom, and many hands make light work. Please come to the school building Sunday, August 13th, from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. to help. Call or email the office to let us know if you will be there, so we know how many donuts to get!

We will be joining other area congregations for the Welcome Back Homecoming Picnic being sponsored by the Jewish Federation on Sunday, August 20th from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Main Pavilion in Nova Community Park on Nova Road in Ormond Beach. There will be food, fun, and magic! Be sure to email your RSVPs to: laurie.jfvf.execassistant@gmail.com if you will be there.

On Sunday, August 27th at 10 a.m. Religious School begins. We are looking forward to being seeing all of you and enjoying the many new activities planned like field trips and Tzedakah projects.

Enjoy the rest of your summer and try to stay cool. If you know of any families with children who might like to attend our Religious School, be sure to let Rabbi Kane or I know!

Miss Helen

The Jewish Federation of Volusia & Flagler and Magen David Adom Ambulance Campaign

NEW AMBULANCES URGENTLY NEEDED IN ISRAEL

About Magen David Adom (MDA)

Magen David Adom is Israel's national emergency response, blood services, and disaster-relief organization. MDA is recognized as one of the world's leading EMS organizations, a reputation it has earned through responding to years of terrorism, wars and everyday accidents. MDA receives no government funding, and therefore relies on the generosity of our American Friends to support its lifesaving work.

In honor of Israel's 75th, the Federation will donate an ambulance to Israel.

The goal is to raise $160,000 for an ambulance and equipment for two years.

MDA's Mobile Intensive Care Units (MICUs) are used for the most urgent emergencies. These "Emergency Rooms on Wheels" are equipped with the most innovative medical technology, wirelessly transmitting data to hospitals allowing for doctors and staff to begin immediate medical intervention before the patient even arrives.

- Donor Recognition:
- Contributions of $10,000+ includes an inscription with the family's name on the ambulance door.
 - Supporters will be invited to a special dedication ceremony, prior to shipping the ambulance to Israel.
 - Donations at all levels are welcome!

To contribute, please make checks payable to:
Jewish Federation of Volusia & Flagler Counties
470 Andalusia Avenue, Ormond Beach, FL 32174

We started our year with a well-attended lunch with TI's Sisterhood at Greek Taverna Restaurant. The second Thursday of the month will now be known as "Sisters in the Hood." Whenever possible, we will plan activities and programming for those Thursdays.

Sisterhood has planned the following upcoming events for 2023:

Thursday, August 10th at 5:30PM - Dinner at Malibu Beach Grill in Port Orange There will be no Sisterhood Program in September (due to High Holidays)

Thursday, October 12th - Game Day & Meeting 1-4PM - Bring your Cards, Rummy Q, or Mah Jongg Sets. Snacks will be provided.

Thursday, November 9th - TBA

Thursday, December 14th Hanukah Party & Program

The following programs will be sponsored by Sisterhood.
Volunteers needed!!!!

Monday, September 25th, Sisterhood will sponsor the "Break the Fast" after services.

Thursday October 26th is the CBT Mah Jongg Tournament

(click for tournament registration form)

Friday, December 8th is the famous and joyful CBT Hanukah/Shabbat Dinner

Finally, if you happen to be celebrating a birthday, anniversary, or any Simcha, there is no better reason to sponsor an Oneg or Kiddush. Our Sisterhood does a spectacular job managing all event catering. Did you know we have "Angels" in our kitchen? Our Kitchen Angel Committee is capably chaired by Lea Moskowitz. Call Laurie in the office to check dates, and she will have Lea get in touch with you.

Please note: A Sisterhood Membership mailer was sent to all female CBT members. If you already paid your annual dues of $36, thank you. Please use the application to invite someone you know!! We are hoping 100% of our members will be part of the Sisterhood or Men's Club. Your dues, participation and caring are what make our congregation a family.

Come join the fun.
